To JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States.

SIR,

THE Legislative-Council and General Assembly of New-Jersey, with much pleasure, embrace this opportunity of assuring you of their high respect for your person and character both in your political and individual relations.

Warmly attached to the principles of a free representative government, we rejoice, that, in experience, the election of a Chief Magistrate has been conducted with temperance, and shewn to the world, that freemen can elect without turbulence or tumult, and that integrity and ability will be the object of their choice.

Your early agency, Sir, in promoting and establishing the liberty and independence of our country, and since that time, your negotiations abroad and various public functions at home, afford the happiest presage that your present administration will not only protect our interests, but also promote harmony and unanimity among the citizens of these states, and friendly sentiment and intercourse with all mankind.

Involved as we are in the conflicting interests of this eventful period, while we would court the favor of calm investigation, we do not forget that man is born to be free and must not yield to dishonor. Conscious that unity of sentiment and firmness of conduct are the surest means of securing our liberties, we yield to none in attachment to our government and promptness to defend it ; but while we feel the enthusiasm, we deprecate the occasion, and, relying on the wisdom of our constitution and the just administration of it, we anticipate the pleasing prospect of nations yet unborn enjoying, undiminished, the rights which it shall have protected and secured.

Be assured, Sir, of our warmest wishes for your personal welfare, and our sincere desire that your public conduct may meet the approbation, and be rewarded with the gratitude of your fellow-citizens, and finally terminate in the felicity of your country.

To the Legislative-Council, and General Assembly of the State of New-Jersey.

GENTLEMEN,

I RECEIVE this address from the Legislative-Council and General Assembly of New-Jersey with a grateful sense of the high honour conferred upon me.

As there is no people whose attachment to the principles of a free representative government has been more constant and consistent than that of the citizens of New-Jersey, there is none with whom I could more heartily rejoice, that elections of a Chief Magistrate have been conducted without turbulence or tumult ; and may future experience demonstrate, that integrity and ability will always be the object of the choice of freemen.

Your kind compliments to me, merit my best thanks and strongest assurances, that should any thing in my administration protect your interest, in common with all those of your fellow-citizens through the union, promote harmony and unanimity among the citizens of these states, and friendly sentiments and intercourse with all mankind, I should esteem myself the happiest of all men.

In this eventful period, when the equilibrium of society is disadjusted, and the passions of men let loose, without restraint or controul, in so great a part of the world, it behoves us well to consider the situation we are in, and be prepared in our minds for whatever we may be called by providence to do, or to suffer, in the cause of honour and virtue, religion and liberty.

Your sentiment, that we must not yield to dishonor, so well becomes the character and dignity of freemen, that it is very certain there never has been, and equally evident there never can be a free people to whom their honour is not dearer than their lives.

As the citizens of New-Jersey have been exceeded by none in their attachment to the constitution, your reliance on the just administration of the government, is peculiarly honorable, and agreeable to me.

Accept, gentlemen, of my cordial thanks for your kind wishes, and an assurance of my sincere prayers for the felicity of the United States in general, and for the Legislature and Citizens of New-Jersey in particular.

JOHN ADAMS.

Mr. Stanbury, from the Committee to whom was referred the Petition of Barndt De Klyne, report—

That William Scudder and John Lloyd, who were duly authorized by Law to sell and convey all the real Estate, lying in the County of Middlesex, belonging to any Person or Persons who had committed Treason against the State of New-Jersey, on the 27th day of September, 1779, did sell, at Public Sale, one third part of 2400 Acres of Land, together with a Grist-Mill, Saw-Mill, and two Forges, situate in Spotswood, in the said County, as the Property of Miles Sherbrook, to one Joseph Haight, and did receive for the same the Sum of £.6750 as the Purchase Money, on the 26th of November, 1779, being the Time when they made their Deed to the said Haight—

That the said Miles Sherbrook had often declared before the Sale, that he was jointly seized, with James Perry and Thomas Hays, of London, in the said Tract of Land, with the Appurtenances—

That

That it was the received Opinion of the Neighbourhood, that the said Sherbrook was so seized, and that the said Scudder and Lloyd so declared at the time of Sale, that the said Premises, with the Tenements and Hereditaments, came by Conveyances, to the Petitioner, and for which he gave the sum of £825,—

That James Perry and Thomas Hays aforesaid, brought an Ejectment for the third part of the said 2400 Acres of Land; that in order to stay the Ejectment until he could discover whether the said Sherbrook had any Title in the Premises aforesaid, the Petitioner filed a Bill in the Court of Chancery against the said Sherbrook and Perry (the said Hays having died)—That on the 10th of March, 1775, after a full Answer made on Oath by Sherbrook and Perry, and after a full Exhibition of the Title of the said Perry and Hays, and the Examination of Witnesses, the Chancellor decreed, that the Bill of the Petitioner be dismissed, the Injunction stayed, and the Court of Common Law be dissolved with Costs—

That in consequence of the said Decision, and for defect of Title of the said Sherbrook to the said Premises, the Petitioner had a Judgment rendered against him in the Court of Common Law, and he was turned out of Possession of the Premises—

That there was paid into the Treasury the Sum of £8256 as the Proceeds of the Sale of the forfeited real Estate of the said Miles Sherbrook, which has never been called out of the Treasury; the said Proceeds were received into the Treasury in the year 1780—

From the above Facts the Committee are of Opinion, that the Petitioner has a Claim on the Justice of the State for the Sum of £265 10 0 the liquidated Value of the said Sum of £6750 according to the Scale of Depreciation, liquidating the said Sum from the Date of the Deed of the said Scudder and Lloyd to the said Haight, and that the Petitioner have leave to bring in a Bill authorizing the Treasurer to pay to him the said Sum of £265 10 0

Mr. Wallace, from the Committee to whom was referred the Petition of John Phillips, of the County of Hunterdon, report—

That having duly investigated the whole of the Circumstances which have come to their Knowledge, it appears to your Committee, that Elias Phillips, the Brother of the Petitioner, at the Time of his Death, was High Sheriff of the County of Hunterdon, that during the Time he was in Office, several Executions came to his Hands, which were levied on the Property of the Defendants, the Execution duly returned, and the Property left in the Hands of the Defendants; the Petitioner prays an Act to authorize him to sell the said Property, he having administered on the Estate of his Brother, or that the Legislature would discharge the Estate of his Brother from all Liability on account of the said Levies—

Your Committee are of Opinion, that the Intervention of the Legislature on this Occasion would be improper, the present existing Laws of the State being fully adequate to afford the Plaintiffs a Remedy to recover their Demands, should they neglect, and any Loss ensue, the Delay being occasioned by them, they might be the Sufferers, and not the Estate of the late Sheriff—Therefore your Committee think the Prayer of the said Petitioner ought not to be allowed.

By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM WALLACE.

Mr. Southard, from the Committee to whom was referred the Petition of the Executors of David Forman, late of the County of Monmouth, deceased, praying that the late Marshal and his Sureties may be discharged from the Payment of a Demand which the State has against them, on the said Executors paying into the Treasury of the State the Sum of £4636 18 s. report—

That the said David Forman and his Associates did, in the Month of December, 1782, re-capture and seize the two following named Vessels and their Cargoes, viz. the Schooners Dolphin and Diamond, which were condemned by the Court of Admiralty in this State—That Nathan Jackson, the Person who claimed the said Vessels and Cargoes, in Virtue of the original Seizure, did remove the said Judgment to the Court of Appeals of the United States—That after the said Cause had been prosecuted in the said Court for upwards of two Years, the Judgment of the Court of Admiralty of this State

State was confirmed—After deducting all legal Costs and Charges of the Condemnation and Sales by the Marshal, there remained £.9273 16 2 one Moiety of which to the State, and the other Moiety to and for the Use of the Captors—It further appears, that an Action was brought by the Attorney General, in the Supreme Court of this State, against the Marshal and his Sureties, and an Interlocutory Judgment was, in the Month of May, 1784, obtained for the Sum of £.4656 10 5 being, as was supposed, the Amount of the Moiety of the net Proceeds of the Sales as aforesaid, and that an Execution was issued against the said Marshal and his Sureties on the 29th of November, 1787, for the Amount of the aforesaid Judgment, which was returned April Term, 1788, nulla bona, by Joshua Corrhon, Sheriff—It does not appear that any further Proceedings have been since that Period had thereon, from the Documents before us—We would further remark, that during the Controversy between the said David Forman and his Associates, and the said Jackson, that large Sums of Money were expended, and much pains and labour employed by the said Captors, as appears by their Accounts before us, to Amount of £.2413 7 0 exclusive of their time expended, risk, &c. That the Loss of considerable Sums of Money were also sustained by the said Captors in the Collection of Debts due on Obligations and other Evidences of Demands for Goods sold by the Marshal, to the Amount of £.624 9 0—which Circumstance, in the Opinion of your Committee, deserves the particular Attention of the Legislature. To comprize a Statement of the above in a more perfect View, we beg leave to submit the following, viz.

No. 1. That on the	Day of May, 1784, an Interlocutory Judgment was had against the Marshal and his Sureties, for the Amount of the State's Share of the net Proceeds of the said Prizes, exclusive of any Allowance for Services &c. amounting to	£.4656 10 5
	Accounts exhibited by the Executors of David Forman, for which they claim an Allowance.

That having taken into Consideration the said Memorial, with respect to the Deficiency in the Payment of Taxes in the County of Morris, and observing by the late Settlement of the Treasurer's Accounts, there are very considerable Arrears of Taxes in several other Counties of the State—

Your Committee, therefore, in order to bring about a Settlement of those Arrearages due from the several Counties who are indebted to the State, and to do equal justice to the several Counties in the State, beg leave to propose a Distribution of the Sum of £.60.000 in the several Counties of the State, in the same Proportion as would be their Quota on raising that Sum, deducting out of each County's distributive share the Amount of the Debt due therefrom; that the Treasurer be directed to issue a Certificate to the Board of chosen Freeholders in each County, payable to them or their order, for what would so appear on this plan to be their Proportion: That the Treasurer be directed to receive the Certificates so by him issued for the Taxes of the respective Counties, equal to Gold and Silver—

Your Committee further beg leave to recommend, that the Sum of £.60.000 be raised, in two Taxes of £.30.000 per annum; by such a Tax there will be paid into the Treasury the present Year £.8426 18 8, and in the next year £.13.792 17 1—The Advantages resulting to the State by this Proposition would be, that we should have all the Debts of the several Counties settled, the Treasurer's Accounts, and the Minutes of the Legislature, would be clear of that long list of Deficiencies from the several Counties, and our County Collectors clear from further Prosecutions by the Treasurer for past Deficiencies.

Mr. Beatty presented the following Resolution for Concurrence:

Whereas it appears, that several of the Counties of this State are largely in Arrear in the Payment of their Taxes, which Arrears, if paid into the Treasury, would be sufficient for the Exigencies of Government for the present Year—And whereas it is, from these Circumstances, wrong to tax those Counties who have paid their Taxes according to Law—Therefore,

Resolved, That no Tax for the Support of Government ought this Year to be laid on such Counties as are not in Arrear, and that the Treasurer be and he is hereby directed to compel those delinquent Counties to pay forward their respective Deficiencies as the Law directs, without delay, and that he lay a Statement of his Proceedings against such delinquent Counties before the Legislature.

Which Resolution was read, and concurred in.
